

ST. PETER'S KEYS

Stop, Look and Listen

September 5, 2018

Principal's Prayer

Be still and know that I am God. Psalm 46:10

This past June, I received a beautiful journal from one of our school families as a thank you gift. I decided to use it during my summer break. My focus being that I would take time to read God's word and respond by way of prayer. Each day I read the Bible verse that was written on the Bible App that I use on my phone. I wrote the verse in my journal and followed it by writing a prayer in response to what I felt God was saying to me through the verse. I am so happy to say that I was faithful in following through with this daily routine. I've decided to share some of my prayers with all of you this school year.

Our theme for this year is Stop, Look and Listen. God wants us to pause in what we are doing, take a look around us for opportunities and listen as He guides us. Our challenge is to BE STILL while we wait for Him.

One thing I've learned while reading scripture is that God's word was written for everyone. How we interpret it may be different than that of someone else. However, if we listen to Him, we will be on His path. If we follow our reading up with prayer, we are able to receive his peace as He comforts us and gives us the wisdom and strength we need. I pray that you join me this year in reading scripture and responding through prayer. Each week I will have a verse for us to read. I will lovingly share my prayer response. I encourage you to keep your own journal. Feel free to share your thoughts as God leads you. Together I am confident our faith will grow.

Heavenly Father, I thank you for reminding me of the importance of reading your word. I ask that you bless each member of our St. Peter's family. Work on all of our hearts so that we reach out to you in all situations giving you the honor and glory you deserve. May your loving grace be present in our lives so that others see the wonderful works you do in all of us. I love you Lord and I lift up my prayers to you. AMEN
