

ST. PETER'S KEYS

KEEP SHINING!!!

CLASSROOM CORNER

“For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven.”
Ecclesiastes 3:1

Happy New Year from First Grade! It's hard to believe that we are halfway through the school year! How is that even possible? December was a wonderful whirlwind, and I would like to share some of the highlights. First, we attended The Nutcracker Ballet to see Sarinna perform on stage. It was so much fun to dress up, support our classmate, and ride the bus together. For many of us, it was the first time riding a school bus. Congratulations to Sarinna on a job well done! Second, we celebrated Gingerbread Day with our Book Buddies. We designed our very own gingerbread house, made gingerbread playdough, and watched a play called The Gingerbread Dude performed by Fourth and Fifth Grade. Fun was had by all! I have to admit, this was my favorite day of the year thus far.

Looking ahead, there are many exciting things planned for February. We will celebrate Groundhog Day, the 100th day of School, and we will receive our first pen pal letter! Meanwhile, we continue to study each week for spelling tests and memory verses. We are developing our subtraction skills through word problems and expanding our understanding of the world through Science. We are learning that matter can be classified as a solid, liquid, or gas. We even conducted an experiment with eyedroppers, toothpicks, and wax paper. Ask them about it!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Laura Sage
