

ST. PETER'S KEYS

KEEP SHINING!!!

January 29, 2024

CLASSROOM CORNER

“This is the day that the Lord has made...let us rejoice and be glad in it!” Psalm 118:24

Greetings from the St. Peter Music Classes! What a great year we have had so far. A little over a month ago we celebrated the holidays with you all at our annual Music Fest. Wow! What an amazing turnout! A big thanks to all of you for coming out and celebrating your child's accomplishments with us. Months of hard work paid off as each chorus delivered their best efforts in celebrating the Christmas season. There was not a spare chair to be had. Good job everyone!

We began the new year with a parade of instruments in the lower grades. We marched around the classroom celebrating “Happy New Year” and kept a steady beat with an instrument of their choice. We've learned to play loud and soft and watch the teacher for direction. Music class often includes an art project. We made snowmen and watched the movie “The Snowman” and listened to the orchestra in the background accompany the adventures throughout this magical wordless story. It was fun to recognize how music can depict an emotion or set a scene without using any words.

Upper grades made snow window scenes and unique snowflakes and will soon begin a new semester of music experiences. Looking ahead we will continue to sing weekly and prepare songs for chapel. We hope to use more students to help lead worship and will also be looking for volunteers to play their instruments in chapel as well. Once again we will explore different genres of music as well as listening to and understanding music from several different eras. Of course this will include some vinyl!

Plans also include visiting artists with their instruments, listening to and watching a Broadway musical, continuing to grow our knowledge of musical scales and building chords. Of course this will all lead to learning our music for our spring program. which will be here before we know it!

We love what we do and we love seeing all the kids in the school each music day. What joy they bring each Tuesday and Thursday. Thank you for your enthusiastic interest and support in our music program and... keep singing!

In His Service,
Mr. and Mrs. Jacob
