CLASSROOM CORNER

Greetings from Kindergarten!

The countdown is on. Next week Kindergarten will be putting on their caps and gowns and celebrating all of their accomplishments this year. They have grown so much since entering those school doors in September. They have taught me so much, as well. As I was searching for activities and inspiration for the end of the year and graduation, I came across an excerpt from Robert Fulghum's best selling book, All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten. I would like to share with you as it sure does prove that everything you learn in Kindergarten is important.

1. Share everything.
2. Play fair.
3. Don't hit people.
4. Put things back where you found them.
5. Clean up your own mess.
6. Don't take things that aren't yours.
7. Say you're sorry when you hurt somebody.
8. Wash your hands before you eat.
9. Flush.
10. Warm cookies and cold milk are good for you.
11. Live a balanced life—learn some and think some and draw and paint and sing and dance and play and work every day some.
12. Take a nap every afternoon.
13. When you go out in the world, watch out for traffic, hold hands, and stick together.
14. Be aware of wonder. Remember the little seed in the Styrofoam cup: the roots go down and the plant goes up and nobody really knows how or why, but we are all like that.
15. Goldfish and hamsters and white mice and even the little seed in the Styrofoam cup—they all die. So do we.
16. And then remember the Dick-and-Jane books and the first word you learned—the biggest word of all—LOOK.

The most important lesson learned this year was the reminder that God will not let you down because his love cannot fail.

Your love, LORD, reaches to the heavens, your faithfulness to the skies. Your righteousness is like the highest mountains, your justice like the great deep. You, LORD, preserve both people and animals. How priceless is your unfailing love, O God! People take refuge in the shadow of your wings. Psalm 36:5-7

Blessings to you on the rest of your school year and the summer together.

Mrs. McKie
