CLASSROOM CORNER

1 Thessalonians 5:18 Give Thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

Hello from Grade 1! Can you believe that we made it past Thanksgiving? Everyone is finding it so hard to be thankful these days, but do you know who isn't? The kids! Throughout the past twelve weeks or so, I realized that they are happy and they adjust to anything: masks, distancing, grumpy teachers, or plexi-glass. When we did our "thankful" list this year, the first grade class was thankful for the same things as every other first grade class that I have had in the past. First graders are still thankful for Mom, Dad, dogs, cats, Jesus, school, video games, exploding biscuits (Thanks, Junie B.!), sprinkles, Doritos and a million other things.

But now we are onto Advent and the Christmas season. And they are just as excited about Christmas. And in between all the Christmas activities that are planned, we will continue to grow as readers, learn even more words, build on math skills as we make graphs, adding, subtracting, and work on our writing skills.

Our first chapel is on December 4th. We wish we could invite all of you to watch it, LIVE and IN PERSON! But those days are gone, for a while, at least. Our theme is MAKING CHRISTMAS COUNT: A COUNTDOWN TO CHRISTMAS. It is something everyone can do at home. It is the little things that build memories. And the little things that the kids enjoy doing the most. Enjoy the Advent Season. Be thankful for what we have and look forward to what is coming! Or should I say WHO is coming?
